

Greta High Backrest

Greta High Backrest

Within its retro design that integrating the past with the future, Greta carries the spirit of the 60's with its retro lines to today. It adapts to any environment with its wide product range in harmony.

Greta High Backrest introduces an opulent solution to create isolated spaces within open areas while allowing effective construction of limited spaces and high concentration with its high backrest. While the backrest helps sheltering, its soft quilted fabric provides noise isolation supporting privacy.

It comes with two different height options for different privacy levels and available with single, double and triple sofa options to serve for different purposes. From open offices to waiting areas, social zones to informal meetings; Greta High backrest offers solution for various spaces.
